Moot Court Report:

Moot Court:

Moot court is an extracurricular activity that allows students to practice legal research and writing skills in writing a case brief and preparing them for engaging in oral arguments. Mooting helps students in improving their presentation and argumentative skills which is essential to prove their case. It helps in developing self-confidence which helps them in speaking in front of others.

- PARTICIPATION IN INTER-COLLEGE MOOT COURT COMPETITION AT JITENDRA CHAUHAN COLLEGE OF LAW, 7th March 2020.

Asmita College of Law participated at Jitendra Chauhan College of law, Mumbai. Three students from Asmita Law college participated as team in Moot Court competition. The competition was organised on different subject / laws ranging from constitutional to cyber security. Our students participated & submitted the memorials. Team Asmita successfully completed the initial rounds & got qualified for final round. Team Asmita was 1st runner-up in the competition.
